"Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?" And he said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is: You shall love your neighbor as yourself".

PREFACE

It has been a full year since the beginning of the global COVID-19 pandemic. We have mostly stayed isolated to our small town here in coastal North Carolina as all Americans have been told to stay at home when possible, socially distance, wear a face mask, wash hands frequently, and sanitize surfaces to prevent spread of the virus to help flatten the curve of the pandemic. Restrictions and curfews have been put into place by state and local government. Vaccines have recently been approved and are now being administered by priority to those who desperately need them the most. Hopefully we will put this virus behind us soon, and life will return to normal, whatever normal will be after this catastrophic event. As a result of the pandemic, President Donald Trump was defeated by VP Joe Biden and is now our 46th President of the United States.

During these days of isolation, I decided to collect and update the White Family history data and publish this little book. I have been a self-appointed family historian for the past twenty years or so and it will be great to have our first edition of The White Genealogy publication. We generally have our White Family Reunion every odd numbered year and we hope to be able to gather again this year. So far, we plan to have the family reunion in Terre Haute, Indiana in 2021, or as soon as the pandemic allows. Most of our eldest surviving family members still reside in the state of Indiana and cannot travel very far to attend a reunion. How appropriate it will be to provide each family member with a copy of this book. That would be a true blessing.

The resources for this book include my personal records and experiences meeting with family members over the past 60 years, recording their stories, updating the family tree, and also from records provided by Anna Viola White Rugh Noble and others who completed the family history of John and Keziah White on the website www.ancestry.com. They have collected thousands of photos and documents on their web pages. The information found in ancestry.com can be somewhat unreliable and unconfirmed, with many discrepancies. That is the reason we need our own family history book of records. This is a first edition and there will surely be some corrections required as the book is circulated and read over and over. I personally welcome any comments, corrections, and recommendations from family members. Changes can be made in the second edition of this book.

Here's a little instruction how this book is designed. I have separated the book into sections by generation. The first five generations are assigned a number in chronological order starting with John White who is recorded +1. John and Keziah had six children and they are numbered from +2 thru +7. The third generation begins with the number +8 and so forth. Hopefully the numbering system will help in cross referencing family members. Note that numbers may not be added for some surviving family members. Also, many birth dates of surviving family members have been omitted due to security concerns for personal information protection. Finally, instead of inserting blank pages, I have included some of my favorite Bible verses, mostly from the New Testament.

Additionally, there is a Part 2 at the end of the book. I separated the Isaiah Anderson White Generation to makes it easier for my personal family members to find their immediate family records. Also, I have included many recent photos of living family members. I hope you enjoy the book and please share it with your young family members so they can begin to know the history of our great family of Whites.

THE WHITE GENEALOGY

PART 1

JOHN M. WHITE AND HIS DESCENDANTS

FIRST GENERATION

John (Jean Brontell) White, son of Brontell, was born on August 31, 1773 in Lorraine, France, and died on February 7, 1856 in Indiana County, PA at age 82, and was buried in North Findley Street Cemetery, Punxsutawney, PA. Another name for John was Brontell or Blanchet. He changed his name to John White when he came to the U.S., before joining the War of 1812

John White was married to Keziah Vandever on December 29, 1814 in New Castle County, Delaware. Her adoptive parents were Hollingsworth. Keziah died on November 23, 1870, having lived a long life of 79 years.

In the History of Indiana County, PA., Her People, Past and Present, by Prof. J. T. Stewart on page 1149 it states: "The history of the White family in this section goes back almost one hundred years. John White (the progenitor) was born in Lorraine, France August 31, 1773. He fought under the command of Napoleon from 1797 to 1801. Later he left his native land to come to America. His ship was wrecked four miles from the American shore. He reached shore by good swimming but lost all the earthly goods he had possessed. He finally settled in Delaware and married Keziah Vandever and they had the following children: Jane, Charles S., Isaac, John Jr., James M., and Isaiah." The book is on-line at Treasures of the Past. Pat Boglino who did research in the Dupont Collection at a Library in Delaware. Thomas Buck had them married about 1814. On their way to Indiana County, they also lived for a time in Jefferson County PA. More detail and proof of this information about John White is provided in the paragraphs to follow.

Further research by Chris Barnes from Pittsburgh says this is the DUPONT COLLECTION at a major library in Delaware. Noted events in his life were: • Life: History of Indiana County PA by Caldwell & J.T. Stewart. 2,3,5 Copy of Naturalization Papers of John White At a Special District Court of the United States, held at Wilmington in and for the Delaware District on the second day of April, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eleven, and of the Independence of the United States the 35th before the Hon. Gunning Bedford Esq., Judge of the Court aforesaid. Be it remembered that on the day and year aforesaid came into the Court John White, a native of the French Republic, subject to the Emperor of France and petitioned the court that he be admitted a citizen of the United States of America according to the provisions of the Act of Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act to establish a uniform rule of Naturalization and to repeal the acts heretofore passed on that Subject", and the said John White having their proved in due form of Law in open Court by the oath of John Dill a competent and disinterested witness, that he has known the said John White for five years and upward, that during that period, the said John White had been resident within the limits and under the Jurisdiction of the United States & one year at least next preceding the said application within the limits and under the Jurisdiction of the State of Delaware.

That since the Informant has known the Petitioner, he has behaved as a man of good moral character attached to the Constitution of the United States, and will disposed to the good order and happiness of the same, and further the said John White, the Petitioner, having declared on oath before the said Court, that all the facts stated by him in his said Petition are true, and further that he would support the Constitution of the United States, and that he did absolutely & entirely renounce & abjure all allegiance & fidelity to any foreign prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatever and especially to the French Republic of which he was then a subject, and having also expressly renounced any hereditary title or order of nobility if any such he may have born in the French Republic from which he came.

He, the said John White was accordingly admitted then and there by the said court to become a Citizen pursuant to the provisions of the Act of Congress aforesaid - By the Court District of Delaware I do Certify that the above is a true copy of the record thereof as remaining of record in the said Court. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal of Office at Wilmington, April the 20th, AD., 1811 Thos. Witherspoon Clk. Dist. Col. D.D. (The above sent to Chris Barnes from Philip White who lives in Ocean City, MD and Chris sent it to Claire White)

We have a record by an unrelated person who was on the same ship and survived, James Alone, who changed his name to James Lunn. They uncovered documents relating to the Juno, including newspaper accounts of its sinking, letters of condolence, and a list those who perished, including Captain Don Juan Ignacio Bustillo. With the state of Virginia's permission, Benson dove on the site and recovered artefacts such as anchors, musket balls, coins, pewter plates, and a small cannon, but he was forced to stop when Spain claimed jurisdiction over the site. This didn't stop him continuing his research of the story of James Alone and his descendants, which he hoped would eventually lead to the tracing of the boy's parents; Benson had already narrowed it down to three couples on the ship.

Well, I found their Marriage Certificate and sure enough It says they were Married 2 miles outside of Frostburg, Maryland along the National Highway. Interesting memories shared by actual White Family members:

Joan White Featherston (+282) shares a memory from back in Cortland, Ohio during her childhood. Joan starts by admitting that each family member may have a different version of the events as they saw them. Here are her memories. Her daddy Isaiah was a Lutheran and her mother Gertrude was a Methodist at that time. They did not attend church mostly because they lived so far away from town, they had no car and were living in poverty. They always believed there was a God and that the Bible was the true word of God. When Joan was just a small girl, they moved onto some land that was given to them by Gertrude's father David Geer. They lived down a long path. This was in a village called Cortland, Ohio. They lived very primitive, there was no electricity or water, no newspaper, no TV or radio. The kids had to go to sleep as soon as it got dark, and it got dark early during the school winter season, so they spent a lot of time in bed thinking while trying to go to sleep. She recalls that her daddy Isaiah would disappear for weeks at a time, leaving the family on their own for long periods of time. One day Joan's handicapped Aunt Irene's husband died, and she had to move in with her for a while to help her around the house and bring in coal. She eventually moved back with the family.

The Isaiah Anderson White family moves to Indiana in 1953.

I asked the question, "How did the White family end up in Terre Haute, Indiana? I got this information from Joan White Featherston during her trip to NC for Tiffany Hull Sutton (+280.3.1) marriage on 9/11/2010. In 1953 grandpa, Isaiah Anderson White loaded up a bus with all their possessions right after school was out in May and headed for California. They left their 18 acres behind. They got as far as Brazil, Indiana and the bus broke down. They stayed in a roadside park while repairs were being made. Weeks went by and they finally rented a chicken coop (near Seelyville) to live in. The bus was never fixed. In the meanwhile, Joan White took a job at Blue Bonnet in 1954. She graduated in 1954. Joan was married to Theodore Miller, and had two sons, Mike and Don. They moved around quite a bit until her divorce and the family moved together to a house that they rented located at 712 North 13th Street in Terre Haute. Isaiah and Gertrude and the rest of the kids lived in one part of the house and Joan lived in the front part. Joan started at Quaker Maid in Terre Haute in 1956 and worked there for 10 years making peanut butter. Don was only 6 weeks old at the time so around end of September 1956. Later in 1958 Joan bought the house at 2840 South 13th Street and has lived there ever since. She still has the same phone number for over 60 years...xxx-7383. Information provided by Joan & son Michael Miller.

Other information provided by Joan:

Grandpa Isaiah Anderson White could sing and play the harp very good, playing songs like "Wabash Cannonball", "You are my sunshine". Grandpa claims he wrote a run in the song "The Isle of Capri". I didn't think grandpa liked music all those years because he would not play the radio. I never heard him play. He mostly boasted about himself and how rich he was going to be. Isaiah had a very bad temper!

Gertrude had no brothers or sisters...she was the only child. Her aunts were: Irene Klingen Smith, Clara Myers, and Cardelia. Her mother was Minnie, and her daddy was David Geer. David gave grandma 18 acres on Lover's Lane in Cortland, OH. near Green, OH.

Isaiah Anderson White's claim to fame:

Isaiah was always proud of the fact that he went to school with a boy who turned out to be a famous movie actor. That actor was born in the same town of Indiana, Pennsylvania and went on to be a super star celebrity. That actor was Jimmy Stewart, (born May 20, 1908, Indiana, PA—died July 2, 1997, Beverly Hills, California), major American motion-picture star who was known for his portrayals of diffident but morally resolute characters.

Information shared by Thomas Anderson White (280.1):

Peggy marries two brothers…
My father, Daniel Anderson White, left my mother Peggy and our family of 7 children shortly before my brother Edward was born in April 1967. He had disappeared many times through our childhood, probably due to PTSD from the Korean war, so this time my mother gave up on the relationship. We did not stay in regular contact with him after that. At that time, we were living in a rental house directly next to my grandmother Gertrude White at 710 N. 13th St. in Terre Haute. My uncle Clyde White had gotten separated from his wife Betty and started courting my mother Peggy. Shortly after that, Clyde and my mother Peggy were married. Clyde Raymond White married Peggy Ann White in Johnston, North Carolina, on August 11, 1969, when he was 30 years old, and they had 3 more children together, Raymond, Wayne, and Dena. It was very strange at first to have our uncle become our stepdad. As the years went by, we grew to really appreciate Clyde and love him as a father. We were all devastated when he died of lung cancer at age 47 years.

Death of Daniel Anderson White…
My father, Daniel Anderson White passed away on March 1st, 2003. He was living by himself in Dayton, Ohio. As I mentioned previously, we did not stay in contact much after he left our family in April 1967. We were contacted by the Dayton authorities of his death and we all went to Dayton, Ohio to make the burial arrangements. We discovered that my father Daniel had provided 3 different birth years. His death certificate and his gravestone at the Dayton VA Memorial Cemetery show his birth in 1930. Perhaps he had lied about his age when he enlisted in the Korean War? His marriage certificate and some letters from the Ohio state government and social security show his birth in either 1932 or 1931. His obituary reflects the 1930 birth year and that he was 72 years old when he passed in March of 2003. I am not sure that we will ever know the true birth date.
